TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

Copyright to the above-listed unpublished and original article submitted by the above author(s), the abstract forming part thereof, and any subsequent errata (collectively, the "Article") is hereby transferred to the American Institute of Physics (AIP) for the full term thereof throughout the world, subject to the Author Rights (as hereinafter defined) and to acceptance of the Article for publication in a proceedings of AIP.

The author(s), and in the case of a Work Made For Hire, as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, the employer named below, shall have the following rights (the "Author Rights"):

- (1) All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
(2) The nonexclusive right, after publication by AIP, to give permission to third parties to republish print versions of the Article or a translation thereof, or excerpts therefrom, without obtaining permission from AIP, provided the AIP-prepared version is not used for this purpose, the Article is not published in another conference proceedings or journal, and the third party does not charge a fee.
(3) The right to use all or part of the Article, including the AIP-prepared version without revision or modification, on the author(s)' web home page or employer's website and to make copies of all or part of the Article for the author(s)' and/or the employer's use for lecture or classroom purposes.
(4) The right to post and update the Article on free-access e-print servers as long as files prepared and/or formatted by AIP or its vendors are not used for that purpose.
(5) If the Article was prepared under a U.S. Government contract, the government shall have the rights under the copyright to the extent required by the contract.

All copies of the Article made under any of the Author Rights shall include notice of the AIP copyright.

By signing this Agreement, the author(s), and in the case of a Work Made For Hire, the employer, jointly and severally represent and warrant that the Article is original with the author(s) and does not infringe any copyright or violate any other right of any third parties, and that the Article has not been published elsewhere, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere in any form, except as provided herein.
